

SPEEDY SHOW IS GIVEN AT PALACE

De Loss Masqueraders Waste No Time in Amusing Large Audiences There.

Never before has a tabloid company demonstrated to a Clarksburg audience the fact that it is capable of crowding into one hour the entertainment that takes all the high price musical comedy attractions two and one-half hours to show. That is just what the DeLoss Masqueraders are doing at the Palace, where they are filling a week's engagement and drawing large audiences, all of whom are both astonished and pleased at their cleverness.

Miss Pearl Winthrop, the leading lady, proved that she has had other than tab experience. Jennie Penot makes a gingersnap soubrette, while the two comedians, Jack La Earl and Lew Glick, make a pair hard to draw to. The chorus girls are all pretty and lively. The costumes are of the style seen in the bigger productions. All in all the DeLoss Masqueraders are above the ordinary class of tabs and their drawing power will be exceeded by very few shows at the Palace. The company changes its bill Wednesday and Friday. All who miss the Palace this week will be overlooking a good bet.

For the first time since the "Edge of the Abyss," in which Mary Boland, Frank Mills and Willard Mack were presented, a tri-star combination will soon be offered in a Triangle Kay Bee play. It will consist of Dorothy Dalton, Enid Markey and Howard Hickman, all three of whom are already established stars of the lince cotelation. Production of the vehicle in which they will be presented was begun this week at the Thomas H. Ince Culver City studios, under the direction of Raymond B. West. It is a new type of vampire story from the

That fresh, mellow-sweet fragrance of "Bull" Durham makes everyone reach for "the makings." A hand-rolled "Bull" Durham cigarette brims over with zest and snap and the sparkle of sprightly spirits.

Bessie Barriscale in "The Payment," Triangle Play.

Bessie Barriscale is co-starred with William Desmond in "The Payment," a live part Triangle play showing today at the Orpheum theater. This is a problem play that deals with the ambitions of a country girl who aspires to fame and fortune. She goes to a big city and after encountering many hardships she decides to make compromises with the established moral laws. She meets a man who is willing to help her climb the ladder of fame as an artist, but he exacts a payment which she at the time considers but a trifle. Later in years her distorted ideas of social values come back to their true focus. When she meets a man she really loves she is face to face with a very difficult problem. Mack Sennett presents an all star cast in "The Social Club," a fast two part Keystone comedy.

Tomorrow, Dorothy Davenport will appear in "A Yoke of Gold," a five act Red Feather drama, and Francis Ford and Grace Cunard will be seen in another chapter of "Peg o' the Ring."

The five-reel American-Mutual features, in which William Russell plays the leading roles under his own direction, with Charlotte Burton in the principal feminine roles, are now considered among the strongest multiple reel releases on the Mutual Film schedule.

Frederick Palmer, former publicity man and scenaria editor of the Keystone forces, is the most recent addition to the Vogue-Mutual studios. Mr. Palmer is now preparing a number of rapid fire two-act comedies in which various of the Vogue-Mutual stars will appear.

Creighton Hale.

Creighton Hale, who will be co-starred with Linda A. Griffith and Sheldon Lewis in the first feature of the Frank Powell Productions, Inc., several years ago was given his first part in a picture by Frank Powell, the director in whose productions he is now a star.

The feature at the Grand today is "The River of Romance" with Harold Lockwood, one of the most gifted stars on the screen, and May Allison, who is equally as talented and popular, in the stellar roles. Most of the exterior scenes are laid in the Thousand Islands, where the company was sent by Metro to make the production. Several palatial homes of New York and Pittsburgh millionaires were used by the Lockwood-Alison forces in photographing the picturesque scenes. The added attraction today is another delightful Metro-Drew comedy starring that inimitable pair, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew. A late Pathe News is also on this program.

Wednesday's feature will be Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in a lasey production entitled "The Selfish Woman," with the Huron Holmes Travels as an added attraction.

"The Sign of the Spade" a five act Mutual star feature with Helene Ross and Allen Forrest as the principals is the Bijou's special offering today. It is a picture of life in high up society and is on the detective order with enough thrills to make it interesting. A Hearst International News Pictorial and one reel of comedy are shown.

Wednesday's feature "The Alibi" with Betty Brown and James Morrison is an extra high class Blue Ribbon feature, put out by the Vitagraph company. Standing where in prison at the false reckoning back clerk, twice accused of murders he did not commit, he tries to batter down the lines of evidence. Because the girl he loves has an unshaken faith in his innocence, he fights, the harder, proves "The Alibi" and wins her love.

OIL AND GAS DEVELOPMENT OF TRI-STATE

Latest Reports of Operations in West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

The eastern fields are presenting nothing out of the ordinary. Few of the completions exceed small pumps and their location is such as to make them of little importance. Located one and one-half miles below Jarvisville on Tennile creek, Tennile district, Harrison county, W. Va., the Hope Natural Gas Company's second test on the Emily Hurst farm is through the Fourth sand and showing for a ten barrel pumper. The fact that the well got oil is a surprise, as it is located on gas territory.

Gassers figured to a considerable extent in the list of late completions. On Bull Fork, DeKalb district, Gilmer county, the Hope Natural Gas Company's test on the O. W. O. Hardman farm is a gasser in the Big Injun sand. On the same stream and in the same district, the Hope company has a gasser in the Maxon sand at its test on the T. Roberts farm. On West Fork, Washington district, the Hope company's test on the C. A. Jarvis farm is a fair gasser in the Big Injun sand.

On Fishing creek, Greene district, Wetzel county, McCormick and Company drilled their test on the T. J. Snodgrass farm into the top of the Gordon sand and developed a fair gas pressure. On Middle Island creek, Ellisworth district, Tyler county, the Chalmers Oil and Gas Company has now completed its second test on the S. P. Lemasters farm and it is a duster.

On the West Fork of White Oak creek, the Hope Natural Gas Company's test on the Claudia Jarvis farm is a light gasser. On Hunt Fork, Harper district, Boone county, the United Fuel Gas Company's test on the A. J. Vineyard farm is dry and abandoned.

Dry in the Maxon Sand. On Richwood run, Grant district, Wetzel county, the Richwood Run Oil Company, after testing No. 4 on the John Mills farm for thirty days in the Maxon sand has given it up for a failure and has started to drill to the Gordon sand. The same company is drilling No. 6 on the same farm and has the rig completed for No. 5.

Drilling and Starting Tests. On Fishing creek, Greene district, Wetzel county, the Wells Oil Company has made a location for a test on the Morgan farm. On Steer creek, Birch district, Braxton county, the Eastern Oil Company has the rig completed for a test on the W. K. Bender farm. On Coon run, McClelland district, Doddridge county, McIntyre Brothers have started to drill a second test on the J. O. Shrader farm. Reeves and Price have started to drill on the Tennaster brothers farm, located on Middle Island creek, in Ellisworth district, Tyler county.

Southeastern Ohio. The deep sand territory in southeastern Ohio is offering nothing better than light pumps. In the Junction City district, Jackson township, Perry county, W. H. Perrigo and Company have drilled No. 3 on the Edward
